

NEWS OF SUBURBS

FULTON NOTES.

Mrs. William Owsland has returned to her home after a delightful visit to her sister, Mrs. John C. Wann, on Denby Street.

Mrs. Louis Doepke, the aged mother of Mr. Charles L. A. Doepke, who has been extremely ill at the home of her son in Virginia, is much improved.

Mrs. Bessie Craddock has returned to Smithfield after a pleasant visit to the Misses Brown on Lewis Street.

Mrs. E. N. Bell is visiting friends and relatives in Surry county.

The Rev. John W. Daugherty will occupy his pulpit at the Apostolic Church to-day at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Daugherty's subject will be "The Kingdom of Heaven—Where is it? What is it? How to find it."

Hudolph Gill, of Newport News, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Samuel G. Meredith on Williamsburg Avenue, has returned home.

Miss Grace Ashart has returned from a delightful visit to friends in Fredericksburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McCalley will arrive to-night from their bridal tour to the St. Louis Exposition. They stopped over in Fredericksburg, Va., on the way home to visit friends and relatives. They will reside at No. 1214 Williamsburg Avenue.

Henrico Council, No. 72, Royal Arcanum, will hold an important meeting Thursday night at Nelson's Hall. All members are requested to be present as business of importance will be discussed.

Howland Council, Daughters of Liberty, held an interesting meeting Thursday night at Kersh's Hall on Orleans Street. Besides unusual business transactions one new member was received.

Miss Charles H. Smith, of State Street, who has been quite ill for several weeks is much improved.

Raymond Carson, the little son of Mrs. A. R. Carson, of State Street, who sustained severe injuries several days ago by falling from the top of a tree, a distance of about thirty feet, is getting along nicely.

Little Charles has returned from a brief visit to his brother, Mr. Charles Carson, in Washington, D. C.

The Rev. David Henson, pastor of the Fulton Baptist Church, who has been conducting a successful revival meeting at Central Baptist Church in Chesterfield county, returned home yesterday and will all his pupils at both services to-day.

Miss Carrie Rockwell, of Matocca, Chesterfield county, has returned home after a pleasant visit to friends in Fulton.

Miss Jennie Irwin, of Aspen Wall, Va., is visiting friends in Fulton.

Mrs. M. Conner is quite ill at her home on Nicholson Street.

Mr. Herman S. Adams has returned from a delightful visit to Mrs. Wilson E. Adams at Roanoke, Va.

Mrs. Mary Perry is quite ill at her residence on Orleans Street.

Mrs. Emma Miller, of Roanoke, Va., is visiting the family of the Rev. John W. Daugherty on Graham Street.

Miss Fencie Marshall, of Charlotte county, has returned after a short stay with friends in Fulton.

Misses Annie, Lillie and Martha McEwen, of Petersburg, have returned after a delightful visit to the Misses Buflin on Fulton Street.

BARTON HEIGHTS.

Mr. Lem Moore, of Staunton, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. O. M. Moore, has returned.

Mrs. Hardie, of Hanover, who has been visiting Mrs. C. C. Higginson, has returned home.

Mr. Roberts, of Coalfield, who has been visiting Mr. Robert Scott, has returned.

Miss Edith Bates has left for her home in Louisiana after a visit to Mrs. S. P. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cole, of Ashland, are the guests of Mrs. Chas. Cole.

Mrs. Geo. W. Lancaster, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. P. Jones, has left for her home in Petersburg.

Miss Florence Smithers has returned after a very delightful visit to friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. J. A. Branch, who has been visiting Branch, of Hanover, has returned.

Miss Ella Whitney, of Brookland Park, is visiting her parents in Philadelphia.

Mr. John Huest, of Virginia Avenue, has left for Blackburg, Va., to attend the V. T. M. D. J. Quinn, of Washington, is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Drummer.

Mrs. J. J. Dumont, who has been visiting in Cincinnati, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Martin, of Miller Avenue, expect to leave in a few days for St. Louis.

Mrs. T. J. Martin, who has been visiting Mrs. C. H. Galloway, has left for her home in Norfolk.

Mrs. Perkins, of Fluvanna, who has been visiting Mrs. J. M. Parrish, has returned.

Misses Gladys and Ethel Saunders, of North Carolina, who have been visiting Mrs. S. P. Jones, have left for their home.

Miss Grace Duval, of Chesterfield, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Mollie Duval, has left for her home.

Mr. J. Walter Kistner, who has been visiting in Cartersville, has returned home.

Mr. F. C. Barthe, of New Castle, is the guest of Mr. Samuel Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Shelton have returned home after a delightful trip to Baltimore and Philadelphia.

FAIRMOUNT NEWS.

Mr. George Collins has returned from a ten days' stay at the World's Fair.

Mrs. Kate Fitzer and children, and Mrs. Sinauli have returned from Chesterfield county, where they were the guests of Mrs. Emma Beach.

Misses Lucy and Mildred Talley, of Roxbury, have returned after visiting friends here.

Miss Bettie Wells is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Gary, of Henderson, N. C.

Charles W. of Newport News, is spending some time with J. W. Christian on the Pike.

William Bryan has left for Roanoke, Va., where he will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gregory have returned from their trip.

The Home Circle of Kings Daughters will meet Thursday evening at Christ Church. The president, Mrs. Nettie Newberry, urges all members to be present, as this is one of the most important meetings of the circle.

Miss Julia Henderson has returned from the mountains of Virginia, where she spent the summer.

Mr. Carl Remschmidt, of Schneiditz, N. Y., has returned after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Germain.

Measles, S. A. Hall, Charles Sims and Mr. Lukhard are erecting handsome residences on Twenty-third Street near G.

Mrs. B. R. Hardon and family left Thursday for Florida, where Mr. Hardon has accepted a position on the Seaboard Air Line.

Miss Fannie Slaughter will leave in a few days to visit relatives in Petersburg, Va.

Miss B. Francis Robinson, who has been visiting relatives in Elizabeth City, N. C., and Portsmouth, Va., has returned home.

Miss Lucy Lewis, of Nottingham county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. Barnes, on Chelsea Hill.

Mr. Ernest Erhart left a few days ago to visit relatives in Baltimore.

CHESTNUT HILL AND HIGHLAND PARK

Mrs. Jesse Jurgensen, of New York, and her sister, Mrs. Henrietta Lee, of Orange county, are visiting their brother, Mr. William H. Holladay, en route to the former's home in New York.

Dr. S. P. Christian has returned after spending several weeks visiting friends in New Kent county.

XANTHINE

Prof. Hertz's

Great German Hair Restorer. Marvelous in its Effects.

It has never failed to restore gray hair to its original color in a few weeks. For Dandruff and Falling Hair, it has no equal.

Price $1.00 Per Bottle.

XANTHINE

Dyspepsia Tablets Assist Nature Until Normal Digestion is restored.

Price 50c. Per Box.

Charges prepaid on all orders addressed to

XANTHINE CO.

Richmond, Va.

ing several weeks visiting friends in New Kent county.

Mr. Bernard Jude left last week to spend some time in St. Louis.

Little Miss Helen Williams was the guest last week of her uncle, Mr. H. Williams, of Third Avenue.

Little Miss Eleanor Enlow, who has been quite sick for several weeks past, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Hanson has returned after spending a month with her daughter in Pennsylvania.

Mr. C. W. Vaughan, who has been quite ill for several days past, is improving.

Miss Marie Todd, who has been quite sick for some time past, is improving.

Mr. John Todd, of Staunton, who is visiting his son, Mr. George Todd, of Fifth Avenue, is improving.

HIGHLAND SPRINGS.

A cotillion was given by Mr. Chris. Gehard on Thursday evening at Fulton Park. A string orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

Miss Dick Warriner, of Lower Henrico, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Ruiner, on Cedar Avenue.

Miss Mary Banks has recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. C. W. Storer and Mrs. Maud Storer Collins have recovered from a week's illness.

Dr. and Mrs. Childs are expected to return soon from Maine.

Master Jacob Steigleder, who has been critically ill, is convalescing slowly.

Miss Rita Stivali, who has also been ill with typhoid fever, is recovering.

During the month of September 1532 visitors registered at the National Cemetery.

Mrs. M. M. Jeffries, wife of the Superintendent of Fredericksburg's National Cemetery, visited here and at Cold Harbor during the week.

Mr. Chas. Reid visited his old home on Thursday.

Mr. R. M. Sanford, of East Richmond, and Miss Alma Wilson, of Richmond, were married in Washington, D. C., Monday 24th, inst. by Rev. Mr. Alter. After the wedding the groom took apartments for himself and bride and their guests who accompanied them from Richmond. The following made up the party: Mr. Wm. Jennings, who was best man; Miss Fannie Martin and Mr. Hugh Fieger. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford will make their home in Richmond.

GAINES'S MILL.

Protracted meeting is now being held at Walnut Grove Baptist Church.

Miss Fannie Galtner, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Ashland, has returned to her home at Fairfield.

O. O. Alexander, of Black Creek, visited this place during the past week.

Mrs. Annie Burnett has returned home after spending the past week with her brother, Emerson McGhee, in Richmond.

Mr. Bruce has rented Geo. Horn's farm for the ensuing year and will move his family there later. Mr. Horn will move his family to Washington.

Mr. Blackwell, who recently returned home from the Memorial Hospital, is yet under the care of Dr. Nelson.

Geo. Parker, of Richmond, visited this place on Wednesday last.

Mrs. M. Martin has returned home from Hickory Grove, where she spent last week.

L. L. Gauding visited Poplar Grove recently.

Miss Myrtle Barker, of Black Creek, visited her sister, Mrs. Stuart, during the past week.

Geo. Jenkins, of Richmond, is spending some time with his aunt, Mrs. Ella Bisher.

COLD HARBOR.

Mrs. Kelley, who has been ill for some time is not improving, and her death is expected at any moment.

Willie McGhee has accepted a position with the American Can Company at Baltimore.

Mrs. Stuart has been quite indisposed recently.

Mrs. Jeffries, of Philadelphia, is spending sometime with friends at this place.

Lillian, the little daughter of Mrs. Willie Barker is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Mantelov spent Sunday last with their daughter, Mrs. Tommie Grubbs, at Poplar Barker and daughter, little Gladys, of Black Creek, visited Mrs. Harvie Stuart during the past week.

Miss Alice Adams is convalescing.

Herbert Wood is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Leslie Kelley, of Richmond, visited his mother's bedside during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker are expected to return home in a few days.

Mrs. Washie Nance, of Richmond, visited relatives in this section recently.

WESTHAMPTON.

Miss Temple Blackburn is improving after her recent illness.

Mrs. S. A. Ford has returned home after spending a week with Mrs. Browning, of Deep Run.

Miss Mamie Wilkerson, of Ridge, has returned home after spending some time at the beach.

Mr. L. E. Buser, of Richmond, has moved with his family to his country home near Ridge Church.

Mr. T. Eubank has returned home after spending a few days in Washington and Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dicks have returned to this place after spending the summer at Alexandria, where Mr. Dicks has been employed.

Miss Julian Browning, of Deep Run, was recently a guest of Miss Temple Blackburn.

Mrs. Gerrig and daughter, Mrs. Nellie, will start sometime this week for a visit to St. Louis.

ELKO ETCHINGS.

Mr. L. W. Scruggs, of this place, is now visiting friends in Williamsburg.

Rev. D. C. Martin and daughter, Miss Margaret, spent two days recently with friends at Malvern Hill on James River.

C. C. Sharpe paid a visit to friends at Seven Pines during the week.

Joe Adams, of Rockburg, visited friends here this week.

George Turner, of Newport News, visited Mrs. E. B. Ward this week.

Miss Irene Jones, of Alexandria, is visiting Mrs. F. C. Richardson.

Miss Annie Mason, of Richmond, has taken charge of the Elko School. She is exceedingly popular with patrons and scholars.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bowers and little son visited New Kent county last Sunday.

OLD CHURCH.

Miss Sallie Woolfolk, of Hanover court-house, arrived last week and will resume her school at Mr. John Dillard's shortly.

Miss Mary and Sue Beal, of Middleton, spent several days last week at Greentirement.

Mrs. Britton, of Prince George county, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Julian M. Rutin.

Mr. Linsey McMin is quite ill.

SOCIETY.

(Continued from Fifth Page.)

ing the summer at Lambert's Point, Va., has returned to the city for the winter.

Mr. Parker Millikin, of Margarettsville, N. C., is here on a visit to his cousin, H. H. Ford, of North Twenty-first Street.

Mrs. Frank West and two children, Cremona and Juanita Dean, have returned to the city, after having spent a most delightful summer at Gordonsville, Va.

Miss Susan West, of Gordonsville, Va., is visiting Mrs. Frank West, of East Broad Street.

Miss Susie Gray, of Hanover, and Miss Adelaide Irb, of Bowling Green, passed through the city last week en route to home, after having spent in days very pleasantly at the St. Louis Exposition.

Miss Emma Louise Dutrow, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. George Horie, of Oak Grove, Hanover county, has returned to her home in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. E. T. Brady, of Abingdon, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. John W. Richardson, of No. 1212 Floyd Avenue, and will be her guest during the horse show.

Dr. and Mrs. Chambers Laird, of Asheville, N. C., as their many friends in this city will be delighted to note, are expected to spend horse show week here.

Miss Virginia Brathwaite, of Williamsburg, Va., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanton Moore, for the Richmond's Foremost Millinery Store.

The Name Reinach in your hat means the Very Best and newest the Fashion World provides. The prices are identically the same as you'd pay elsewhere for inferior styles, and in many cases a good deal less.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO INVESTIGATE.

Encouraged by the great demand for popular priced hats we have set the trimming force to making up for first wear a line of Shirt-Waist Hats, newer and more novel in point of style than will be shown later when the better numbers will be picked over. Prices as usual, to suit all purses.

REINACH, 427 E. Broad, The Millinery Store, NEXT TO FOURQUEAN, TEMPLE & CO.

MISS FLORENCE NEUHEISER.

Miss Neuheiser is One of the Prettiest Members of Richmond's Younger Social Set.

past month, returned to her home this morning. Miss Brathwaite was among the guests at the garden at Lakeside Friday night.

Misses Bessie and Grace Hubbard, of Farmville, Va., who have been visiting the cousin, Miss Lucy Clinton, on Graham Street, returned to their home to-day, much to the regret of their many friends.

Mrs. K. Fitzhugh Thornton has returned from a pleasant visit to relatives at Fort Royal.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Brooks have taken the Ellis place at Meadow Brook for the autumn season.

Dr. Paul R. McFadyen returned to Randolph, N. C., Friday evening after a short visit to Mrs. N. M. Albert, at No. 414 East Grace Street. Mrs. McFadyen and little son will remain in Richmond for some weeks.

Mr. Walter George Newman arrived from New York yesterday and is spending several days with Mrs. Newman at the Jefferson Hotel. Mr. Newman, who has brought his fine horses and turnout to Richmond, took out a party in his tally-ho coach last afternoon.

Mrs. D. T. Williams has returned to Richmond after a summer spent at Lake George, New York city, the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, and recently in Pittsylvania county, with her sister, Mrs. Talley.

Mrs. Virginia Harrison and her mother, Mrs. T. O. Keese, have returned after a stay of two months in the mountains of Virginia.

Mr. C. E. Palmatory, of Norfolk, left Wednesday after spending ten days with friends and relatives. He was the guest of Mrs. Sol. L. Bloomberg, of No. 414 North Twenty-fourth Street.

Mrs. Adolph Klein, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Mrs. Sol. L. Bloomberg.

The Kate Wheelock Club will meet for reorganization Wednesday afternoon next, at 4:30 o'clock, in the home of the president, No. 210 East Franklin Street.

Mr. and Mrs. David May and their two lovely children, Miss Sylvia and Master Irving May, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home in Orange, Va., much to the regret of a host of friends.

Miss Lina Blum, of West Grace Street, after spending a delightful summer in Orange, Va., has returned home.

Miss Jennie Pelouze, of No. 720 East Marshall Street, leaves with her party on Tuesday next, October 11th, for the St. Louis Exposition.

Mr. H. T. Durvin left last Tuesday to visit the World's Fair, St. Louis, and on his return will visit the principal cities of the West.

Mrs. Thomas J. Branch and son, Russell, who have been visiting in Newburgh, Poughkeepsie, and Wappinger's Falls and Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for the past six weeks, are now visiting Mrs. George Cyphers, in Newark, N. J.

Miss Annie Cooper has returned home after spending the summer with Mrs. J. B. Green, of Lester Manor.

Mrs. Mary Henderson, of Durham, N. C., is visiting friends at No. 718 East City Street.

OCTOBER 2D IN WORLD'S HISTORY

331 B. C.
Darius, King of Persia, defeated by Alexander at Arbela, losing 30,000 men. This defeat of Darius decided the fate of Persia.

322 B. C.
Aristoteles, the celebrated Greek philosopher, died. It is said that he threw himself into the Euripus because he could not satisfactorily explain the cause of the tides. He was the first person on record who was possessed of a private library.

1340.
The Scots, under King David, took Liddel Castle, in Cumberland, after a siege of six days, beheaded the Governor, plundered the abbey of Lanercroft and then directed his march towards Durham.

1394.
Richard II, having made a truce with France, landed in Ireland with a large force; he succeeded in reducing the natives to obedience, who, in the absence of the English barons and knights, had intercepted and refused the revenues. The country was divided at that time into different kingdoms.

1710.
The conquest of Port Royal, or Annapolis Royal, completed by the British and colonial forces, under Colonel Nicholson.

1711.
Memorable fire in Boston, which swept down Cornhill and other streets, and was attended with loss of life and limb.

1740.
The French East India squadron destroyed at Madras by a hurricane.

1780.
John Andre, a British officer, hanged at Tappan, New York, as a spy, while Arnold made his escape to the British headquarters, where he received £10,000 and a commission in the army, as a reward for his treachery.

1780.
A violent hurricane in the West Indies, which devastated the island of Jamaica. In one town of 200 inhabitants, not a vestige of man, beast or habitation was left. Twelve men-of-war were lost and in most of them their entire crews perished.

1792.
Charles Lee, a major-general in the Revolutionary army, died. He was an officer in the British army at the age of eleven, and distinguished himself in 1762 under Burgoyne in Portugal. He joined the American army at the outbreak of the war, but was suspended after the battle of Monmouth.

1803.
Samuel Adams, Governor of Massachusetts, died, aged eighty-two; distinguished as a writer and patriot and for his influence in forwarding the American Revolution; of stern integrity, dignified manners and great suavity of temper. He and John Hancock were proscribed when a pardon was offered to every one else.

1842.
The United States sloop-of-war Concord was lost on the rocks in the Mozambique Channel, and one or two of her crew perished.

1848.
Henry Burbeck, an officer of the Revolution, died at New London, aged ninety-four. He retired from the public service in 1815, having spent thirty-eight years in almost incessant activity.

1892.
Joseph Ernest Renan died.

1903.
The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of London visiting the Honorables of Boston, Mass.

OCTOBER 3D IN WORLD'S HISTORY

382.
The Goths submitted to the Roman empire, under Theodosius.

1187.
Jerusalem acquired by the arms of Saladin, the Turk.

1405.
Henry IV. granted to Sir John Stanley the Isle of Man in the Irish Sea.

1573.
The Spaniards abandoned the famous siege of London, during which Kanava obtained celebrity for her patriotism.

1594.
Battle of Glenlivet, in which the forces under James V. under the Duke of Argyll, were defeated by the Scotch.

1691.
The English and Irish war ended by the fall of Limerick.

1754.
James Logan died; a learned Quaker, who accompanied Penn to America in 1699, and assisted in the government of the colony. His library contained 3,000 volumes, and was the largest in the colonies. He understood several ancient and modern languages, and his writings were republished in Europe.

1793.
The last two male natives of Pitcairn's Island murdered by the three survivors of the British ship Bounty.

1794.
The Fortress Juliers opened its gates to the victorious French on the famous victory over the Austrians on the banks of the Roer, which delivered all the German provinces on the west side of the Rhine into the hands of the republicans.

1811.
First newspaper issued at Buffalo, N. Y.

1813.
Battle of Wartenburg, a small town on the left bank of the Elbe, between the Prussian army of 24,000, under Blucher, and the French, under Bertrand, of 20,000. The former made a memorable march from Bautzen to the Elbe. The river was wide and rapid, and the pontoons were thrown over under the fire of the French, who were defeated with much loss.

1815.
Juan Diaz Polier, a celebrated Spanish partisan general, hanged at Corunna. He distinguished himself at the battle of Tarfagar and rendered the king important services in the war with the French.

1838.
Blackhawk, a celebrated Indian chief and warrior, died at his camp on the River Des Moines.

1848.
Lewis F. Linn, senator of the United States from Missouri, died at St. Genevieve.

1848.
The Emperor of Austria dissolved the Hungarian diet, proclaimed martial law for that province and appointed the Ban Jellachich to the supreme government.

1861.
Battle of Greenbrier, Va.

1853.
James Talmadge died in New York, aged seventy-five. He was Lieutenant-Governor of New York in 1824, and devoted the last twenty years of his life to the American Institute as its president.

1869.
Union troops threw Greek fire into Charleston, an act that was condemned by public opinion the world over.